April 10, 1989

Speaker Thomas Loftus
Room 211 West, State Capitol
Madison, WI 53702

Dear Tom:

As chair of the Assembly Health Committee, I wish to announce formation of the Subcommittee on Medical Services.

This Subcommittee will be responsible for reviewing recommendations relating to rural health care. These recommendations may include provisions dealing with the shortage of doctors, nurses and other health care professionals, financial difficulties facing rural hospitals and access to health care.

April 26, 1989

Speaker Thomas Loftus
Room 211 West, State Capitol
Madison, WI 53702

Dear Speaker Loftus:

Due to my difficulty in arranging my schedule to attend the meetings of the Urban Education Committee, I think it is only fair that I resign my membership on this committee. Due to the important issues that come before it, this committee deserves someone who can more faithfully attend the numerous meetings.

I have spoken with Chairperson Notestein and she knows of my intention to resign from this assignment. So I am resigning from this committee as of this time by notice of this letter.

Sincerely,
JOHN MEDINGER
State Representative
